Perdue Appoints Long to Fill Out Term as Top Prosecutor for Person and Caswell Counties

RALEIGH - Gov. Bev Perdue today appointed former Superior Court Judge James M. Long to serve as acting district attorney in Prosecutorial District 9A. District 9A encompasses Person and Caswell counties. Long will complete the current term of Joel Brewer who retired March 1.

“Judge Long will give the people of Person and Caswell counties the leadership and experience needed in an acting district attorney,” said Perdue. “I appreciate his willingness to serve.”

Judge Long served as a recorder’s court judge for Caswell County from 1964-1970 and as superior court judge from 1970-1994. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he was a Morehead Scholar and his law degree from the University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill School of Law.
